

Fulton County NY
POSITIVE

SOLID WASTE
ENVIRONMENTAL TECHNICIAN

Fulton County Solid Waste Dept.

Performs field work and technical office work on a variety of environmental projects. Responsibilities include weekly monitoring of landfill methane to electric system including "tuning" of landfill gas wells and installation of new collection piping and performs quarterly gas testing for EPA Title V requirements; conducts weekly landfill inspections; oversees leachate pumping system; stormwater compliance monitoring and reporting; compiles and files Demolition Team notices with NYS DOL; ensures staff safety training and scheduling is performed; submits annual NYS DEC reports; oversees bulk storage tank compliance and monitors fuel dispensing system; does miscellaneous duties as required.

Bachelor's degree in the environmental field or Associate's degree in the environmental field & 2 years of experience. A Civil Service exam will be required.

Salary - $19.94/hr start rate/$23.46 after 1 year
40-hour work week. County residency required.

Interested persons should contact David Rhodes, Director
FC Solid Waste Dept., PO Box 28, Johnstown, NY 12095
(518) 736-5501, between the hours of 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Fulton County is an EOE